Rules and Regulations

All monthly fees are due on the first day of each month, as stated in the Boarding Agreement. Late fees will be assessed for payments made later than the 5th day of that particular month. No multiple horse discounts will be given. All invoices for horse show services billed after the show are due upon receipt of invoice.

Weekly rides/lessons from any service program have to be taken that particular week and can not be credit to a later use unless prior arrangements have been made and agreed upon by trainer.

Protected headgear is required when mounted on a horse.

No jumping is allowed without a trainer present. No exceptions! Violations may results in fines and/or ejection from the program.

All services provided on the grounds (i.e., lessons, training, lunging, feeding, turn out, walker, etc.) are to be performed by Top Line Sporthorse appointed personnel only.

No self-service in the feed room is allowed.

No smoking in stable areas.

All dogs must be kept on a leash.

No driving, parking, and/or riding on landscaped areas or lawn!

Current negative Coggins test is required for all horses to be on the grounds.

Tack, sheets, and blankets to be supplied by horse owner.

Cleaning and repair services can be arranged at a nominal charge to owner.

Except in the case of an emergency or special holiday hours, the barn will be closed for all customers on Mondays, and your adherence to the stated barn hours is expected and appreciated. Please read the barn hours carefully! Any exceptions will have to be arranged in advance with management.

Thank you very much for your understanding and cooperation.
